Nurse (Per Diem)

Horace Mann School seeks a licensed Registered Nurse (Per Diem) for the John Dorr Nature Laboratory located in Washington, Connecticut.

The John Dorr Nature Laboratory is the school's 275-acre outdoor education center that provides adventure and environmental education programs for students in nursery years through twelfth grade. Programs vary in length from one to eight days, including overnight and weekends. All programs are designed to enhance the curriculum at each grade level and to emphasize the cooperative aspects of learning and living.

Current license (Connecticut) and certifications required. Experience working with school age children preferred. Ability to communicate effectively with students, parents, administrators and faculty a must.

Interested candidates should send resume and cover letter to: Glenn Sherratt, Director, John Dorr Nature Laboratory of Horace Mann School, P.O.Box 290, Washington Depot, CT 06794-0290 or email Glenn_Sherratt@horacemann.org or employment@horacemann.org
