ICIE Associate – Office for Identity, Culture and Institutional Equity

Start Date: July 1, 2019

Horace Mann School Office for Identity, Culture and Institutional Equity, actively seeks to enrich and nurture a diverse school community and a rigorous and innovative curriculum. Our goal is to move with purpose and conviction toward greater inclusion. We define inclusion as policies, practices and programs based on a set of shared core values. We measure inclusivity by the degree to which people of all backgrounds, people of all perspectives and people of all beliefs are able to contribute, to belong and to achieve within the community without fear of discrimination or marginalization. We believe that inclusion requires everyone to recognize, respect and value difference.

We are seeking qualified candidates for a full-time ICIE Associate. The full-time ICIE Associate will work under the direct supervision of the Co-Directors of ICIE and collaboratively with all members of the team. This position will focus on working with our Nursery/Lower Divisions in the areas of anti-bias and culturally responsive curriculum.

- Have knowledge of and experience with diversity work in an independent school
- Become a trained S.E.E.D. leader and participate in S.E.E.D. (Seeking Educational Equity and Diversity) seminars
- Be able to manage multiple on-going tasks
- Be an effective communicator (listening, speaking, writing)
- Demonstrate an understanding of multiculturalism, equity, and social justice.
- Demonstrate kindness, thoughtfulness, creativity and informed decision-making
- Be able to take on leadership roles and be supportive of the work of others
- Be a strong advocate for the Horace Mann School community
- Be willing to work a flexible schedule including some evenings and weekends
- Be willing to work on all HM campuses (Riverdale, Manhattan, Washington, CT)

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's degree, master's degree preferred
- Early childhood/elementary school teaching experience desired
- Adult and/or student group facilitation experience desired
- Relevant experience with equity and social justice within organizations/educational institutions

Horace Mann School is a coeducational, college preparatory independent day school for students from Nursery through grade 12. The School seeks to stretch the imagination, intellect and insight of its students while developing the moral characteristics that impart identity and purpose. We recognize as our core values: the Life of the Mind, Mature Behavior, Mutual Respect, a Secure and Healthful Environment, and a Balance between Individual Achievement and a Caring Community. These core values guide our decision-making and govern the implementation of our curriculum and programs across all divisions of Horace Mann School. In addition to its campuses in Manhattan and the Bronx, NY, the School also owns and maintains the John Dorr Nature Laboratory, a comprehensive outdoor education facility on 304 largely wooded acres in Washington, CT. One of the nation's 10 largest independent day schools, as of September, 2018, the School enrolls 1,786 students representing 148 zip codes, with 40% self-identified students of color. For 2018-19, 15% of the students receive need-based Financial Aid. Twenty-two percent of School administrators, teachers and staff members identify as people of color. Over the past five years, the School has recorded a 97% annual retention rate for students and a 92% retention rate for all employees. The school's recent $100 million bricks and mortar campaign has provided the Middle and Upper Divisions with newly constructed and renovated state of the art science and physical education facilities.

Interested candidates should submit a detailed resume, including all teaching and non-teaching related experience and cover letter to: employment@horacemann.org
